Greetings Roadrunners . . .

March was a very busy month for the Desert Roadrunners. A small group traveled to Yuma, AZ for our rally. We started out with everyone getting their coach washed and waxed. We visited the date farm for lunch and then went to an outdoor market for fresh vegetables. Some went to Mexico to shop while others visited the annual car show. We attended the local Elks club for a fish fry and had our traditional lunch at Lute's casino. We finished the rally with a BBQ under the stars.

Some members and officers attended the Escapees rally at the Pima County Fair Grounds. We met with officials of the organization and discussed starting a chapter under the Harvest Host/Escapees organization. We will discuss this again at the Dead Horse rally and again at Patagonia. We feel that there are many benefits that we can enjoy with the new organization.

We will have over ten rigs attending Dead Horse State Park in Cottonwood. There are many events planned to keep us busy. Some of the highlights will be attending Blazing M Ranch for dinner and shows, wine tasting, and visiting the city of Jerome.

Our final rally will be at Patagonia Lake State Park to attend the annual Mariachi Festival. We will also have our chapter meeting and have a lot to discuss. If you cannot attend the rally, please try to stop by for the meeting or to just visit. Connie and I hope to see you there.

Jack Mayberry, President

♥ Caring and Sharing ♥

Michelle Stovers had an emergency appendectomy and was in the hospital four days. She is doing well, but they had to cancel their Dead Horse rally RV trip. They hope; however, to join us at one of the upcoming rally dinners.

Dennis Kunkle is being treated for Afib.

Tonya Swarner is back in the hospital after her hip surgery due to excess bleeding at the surgery site.

Joyce Newell is recovering well from her fall and (more positive news) they have moved back into their house. They had been renting across the street since a fire in the garage.

Finally, as we reported in February, Corky Boisvert passed away back in December. Her daughter, Sherry Sajdak, informed us recently that they will probably hold a memorial for her mom in June. We understand that Sherry is dealing with kidney cancer and her brother will be having brain surgery for tremors, in the near future. Sherry and her brother both live at the Voyager.

Please keep these members/friends in your thoughts and prayers for healing and a speedy recovery.

Kay Dahms

Congratulations to our April Honorees . . .

March Rally Highlights (1 of 2)

The March Rally took us to Yuma, AZ again this year where we stayed at the Desert Holiday RV Resort. Yuma is one of our favorite destinations due to easy access to activities like the Elk's Club (above) for a fish fry and because it gives us a chance to pamper the coaches with an affordable wash and wax job. Roadrunner Officers served jointly as Wagon Masters beginning with a happy hour upon arrival and a delicious spaghetti dinner. (Additional highlights can be seen on the next page).

March Rally Highlights (2 of 2)

From top left, Shaunna & Scott Brouchard outside Martha's Gardens where attendees enjoyed a tour and lunch at the popular date farm. At top right Jack and Connie Mayberry head for the Andrade-Los Algodones border crossing where they strolled down cobble stone streets and took in some authentic Mexican food and music. Next, there was time on the agenda for members to attend Yuma's annual car show where this year's theme was Midnight at the Oasis. The last photo could be aptly captioned "How many Roadrunners does it take to prepare a coach for group seating?" In this case it turned out to be one worker and five more to offer detailed guidance!
