Greetings Desert Roadrunners from President Jack Mayberry & Connie. . .

Jack Mayberry emayberry@comcast.net (520) 250-9153

We have finally made our turn for home to Tucson. We have had great weather in northern Michigan. Now is the time to plan on attending our rallies for the rest of the year. We are sorry we missed the first rally.

I heard you had a great time and welcome to our new members Jo Ann Powell & Greg George who were able to attend. Rallies don't just happen; it takes everyone's help. Please sign up to host one of our next rallies or to help another member to co-host.

I want to thank Bob Dahm for his continue support as we transition our web master and newsletter editor. His help is making the transition a lot easier.

We plan on being home the first week of October and looking forward to seeing you at the Wilcox rally. We will be stopping in Denver for a short stay to watch grandkids sports and then trekking home.

Just a final reminder, save the date January 2, 2026, the RR Board will be hosting fun activities as part of our Annual Luncheon. We look forward to celebrating with everyone at this special event.

Wishing everyone safe travels. We look forward to seeing all of you very soon.

Jack and Connie

It is with a heavy heart that I share the passing of Jan White on September 5th, passing peacefully at home. The attached picture was taken last December at our "White Elephant Exchange." She thoroughly enjoyed herself. Jan will be missed by all. Love you, Angel Jan!

In late September Dennis Kunkel underwent surgery to help stop the tremors caused by Parkinson's. I spoke to Dennis and Jenny afterwards and he seemed to be doing well. They were blessed to have their daughter with them during this time. She is also a nurse.

On a lighter note, during our September Rally at Westward Way RV Resort, we were joined by Erwin Klawitter, our honorary member. Erwin is the only living member of the original Desert Roadrunners. Sure good to see you Erwin!!!

Last but not least, Bob & Kay Dahms celebrated their 57th Anniversary. Congratulations to the two of you!

Congratulations to our October Honorees . . .

Ed White efwhite64@gmail.com (520) 508-3211

OUR FIRST SEPTEMBER RALLY was a success with 10 coaches with 2 new members Jo Ann Powell and Greg George. Several members stepped up to host as Wagon Masters! Thank you, Frank & Theresa Urbina, Rita Moore, Kay Hanson and our master flapjack'er, Terry Whaley and rally attendees for all your help cleaning up, washing dishes and making our first rally of the year fun and successful.

RALLY PICTURES: TAKE A LOOK AT THE PICTURES, members found a few Tucson historical restaurants Karichimaka Mexican Restaurant (1949), Fred's Arena Bar & Steak House (70's), Tiny's Saloon & Steak House (80's). At dinner it was great to have Erwin Klawitter our longest (1985) member, Dan McClellan (2010) and Dave & Marilee Crumley join us.

Saguaro Nation Park West: Scott & Shaunna Bouchard took new member Greg George on 4-wheel drive tour of the Saguaro Nation Park West.
